

Call for Application

Workshop: Mediterranean Connections

Spatial Configurations. Temporalities. Infrastructures

Description

The workshop addresses the complexities and ambiguities of a world region that constitutes both a shared space and a boundary. Moving from Antiquity to the 21st century, it explores three main themes that allow us to approach phenomena of Mediterranean connectivity from different angles: Spatial configurations, infrastructures, temporalities.

Date:

10–14 October 2022

Venue:

University of Konstanz

Costs:

Travel costs, accommodation, and food are financed for all travelling students through different funds, including an Erasmus+ Blended Intensive Programme

Credits:

6 ECTS

Thematic sections:

1. Frameworks and Infrastructures
2. Transfer of Knowledge
3. Mobility and Identity
4. Religion & Social Interaction
5. Conflicts, Trauma & Memory

Application

Are you a student interested in receiving a broad overview on Mediterranean history taught by fourteen academic teachers from Bulgaria, France, Greece, and Germany?

In this case, send a short letter of motivation (one page) to the workshop organizer at your home university until 1 June 2022.

How to reach us

Konstanz: Daniel König, daniel.g.koenig@uni-konstanz.de

Mytilene: Eleni Gara, egara@aegean.gr

Paris: Alexis Drach, alexis.drach@univ-paris8.fr

Sofia: Mariana Malinova, m\_malinova@nbu.bg